Patricia A. Estrada, DC

Patricia A. Estrada is a full-time clinician at Logan College of Chiropractic’s Yorkshire Health Center in Webster Groves. Estrada originally began work at Logan in 1999 as a physiologic therapy assistant at the school’s Montgomery Health Center. After graduating from Logan, Estrada moved to Costa Rica to work for Quiropráctica Mundial as an associate for one of its four high-volume chiropractic clinics and participated in weekly local radio and television educational segments on chiropractic and health.