

Davorka Marovic-Johnson, M.Ed., LPC

Davorka Marovic is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC). She received her Masters of Education degree from the University of Missouri- St. Louis (CACREP-accredited) and she completed evidence- based trauma treatment for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder at the Center for Trauma Recovery in 2002. Ms. Marovic is also a Missouri- approved counseling supervisor. She worked as the Clinical Supervisor at the Center for Survivors of Torture and War Trauma until 2016. Currently, Ms. Marovic works full-time in her private practice in Clayton. She regularly presents and develops professional workshops at Washington University and local mental health agencies. She also serves as a community advisory board member at the Institute for Clinical and Translational Sciences at Washington University. Presently, Ms. Marovic is completing Advanced Psychodynamic Psychotherapy, a two year program, at the Psychoanalytic Institute. She is trained in many evidence based approaches. Her clinical focus is working with adults and families on relationship issues, transgenerational work, early life development, attachment and parenting. She is a frequent guest lecturer at all local universities, presents at international conferences and has a publication related to posttraumatic stress.

Ms. Marovic was born in Montenegro, former Yugoslavia. She came to USA to attend school at the University of Tampa in Florida. Ms. Marovic is fluent in Serbian, Bosnian and Croatian.

Practice information:

Clinical Counseling Services

230 South Bemiston Suite 1213 Clayton, MO 63105

Tel: 314-406-7281

davorkamaroviclpc@gmail.com