“The RF was extremely helpful. It was a panel of senior researchers from multiple fields through the medical school. They questions posed both about the science, as well as the strategy, were very helpful in formatting a 6-12 month plan. In addition, interest from other potential collaborators and internal funding mechanisms are proving to be very useful avenues. Thank you for this great opportunity.” Molly Stout